INITIAL STATUS REPORT

1. SUMMARY OF PLAINTIFF'S CLAIMS

The Plaintiff has filed a multi-count complaint against numerous Cook County Sheriff Defendants and medical personnel from Cermak Health Services and John Stroger Hospital. The Plaintiff alleges that he suffered a open wound, right tibial fracture in August 2006. The Plaintiff asserts that upon arrival to the Cook County Jail, his right leg was put in a cast. The Plaintiff claims that while at the Cook County Jail his leg lost feeling, his wound started to discharge fluid, began to smell and his cast became soaked with fluid. The Plaintiff alleges that he informed multiple Cook County Sheriffs and Cermak Medical Personnel about his condition and they ignored his requests for medical treatment and/or gave him inadequate treatment. The Plaintiff asserts that as a result of the alleged deliberate indifference, his right leg was amputated. The Plaintiff has also filed a state law claim of Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress base upon the allegations listed above.

2. STATEMENT OF RELIEF SOUGHT

The Plaintiff is seeking compensatory and punitive damages from the Defendants resulting from the loss of his leg but is unable to itemize his damages at this time.
